2007 “Beef Backer Award” and “Restaurant of the Year.”

Some of the finest steakhouses in the world are located in Italy. Carefully raised and aged to perfection, the beef is grilled on huge open-hearth charcoal pits.

Inspired by this old world tradition, Mancini's Char House has used this same technique for steaks and lobster for more than half a century. Each is hand-picked at the wholesalers and flawlessly broiled on Mancini's large open charcaol broilers.

Mancini's Char House is a long-stanging tradition in St. Paul. The Mancini's Family is proud to serve you the finest steaks and seafood of the Twin Cities with a personal touch!
